The annual Tourmakeady St. Patrick's Day Parade was another notable community day with great participation from everyone in and around the local area. The parade started at St. Mary's Church after Mass, with the local schools and children taking part. All the many floats contributed greatly to the parade with a big fleet in attendance from one of our local haulage company's. Again this year we were treated to an impressive flyover from one of our local residents. Thank you to everyone on the sidewalks waving and cheering everyone along in the parade.
Thank you all so much for taking part and to Father Kenny. At the Hall as usual there were plenty of different sandwiches cakes and biscuits and thank you to all who donated and for the ham and cheese. Thank you too to all the many helpers during the day and before with the organisation. Again a big congratulation to the dancers and the many musicians. Such a wonderful opportunity for everyone to meet and greet and to have the Craic. In fact picking up on someone's lovely comment "Tourmakeady, the best little parade in Ireland!" See [https://
